Staithes picture to boost RNLI

ROBERT Shaw's paintings have long been highly sought-after by people in and around the village of Staithes.

Now a full-time professional artist, his work is currently sought by galleries nationwide.

He has kindly donated a large oil painting called Staithes Dreaming, worth £1,600, as the first prize in a raffle for the RNLI Staithes and Runswick Lifeboat Station.

Tickets cost £1 and will go on sale at the Easter Art Show at Staithes Gallery where Robert is also exhibiting new work.

The raffle will be drawn during the Staithes and Runswick Lifeboat Weekend in August.
